

WACKY WIG WEDNESDAY!!!

On Wednesday 6th April, Raglan Area School is having a crazy hair day to support Leukaemia & Blood Cancer New Zealand (LBC). There will be a competition held at lunchtime for the craziest hairdo and the winner shall receive a $20 Happy Puku voucher. Entry cost is a gold coin and all proceeds go into researching for a cure for Leukaemia and Blood Cancer.

There will also be some students and teachers who will be shaving their hair the same morning in the gymnasium. If students year 8 or below wish to participate they will need signed permission from their parent/guardian.

Additional donations can be made on the webpage:
